To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts, Treasury Department, and the Comptroller in charge, Huzur Treasury, Circular letter No. 1756, dated 13*th July* 1891.

It has come to the notice of the Comptroller that the unauthorized practice has crept into the Revenue Deposit accounts in certain Districts, of grouping deposits of a similar nature remaining unpaid at the close of an official year and entering it in a lump-sum in the accounts of the next year as a fresh deposit, by debiting the same in the accounts of previous year as repayments. This practice is in direct contravention of Codal rules, and the Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, are requested to stop the practice wherever it exists and that all items which are not adjusted in the same year are invariably shown in the outstanding Balance Statement according to the entries in the original accounts, vide Chapter XV, Rule 7, of the Civil Account Code.
